LIVE AND SILENT AUCTION LISTINGS

OPPORTUNITY AND CASINO PRIZE DRAWINGS

OPPORTUNITY DRAWINGS

“The Winning Side”

“Captain Renault: In 1935, you ran guns to Ethiopia. In 1936, you fought in Spain, on the Loyalist side.

Rick: I got well paid for it on both occasions.

Captain Renault: The winning side would have paid you much better.”

Be on the “winning side” with this exciting opportunity to try your luck at a prize almost as sought-after as the coveted letters of transit in Rick's Café Américain. Only 100 raffle tickets will be sold for each item, at $50 each – and as such, the odds are much more favorable than Rick could offer!

R1 Yes! It's the iPad!

Estimated Value: $540

Apple's revolutionary, magical new product comes to Casablanca! This extraordinary 16GB device is simply the best, most compact way to experience the web, email, photos and video. A 9.7" LED backlit display with a remarkably precise multi-touch screen offers you unprecedented access and flexibility. And, at just 1.5 lbs. and 0.5" thin, it is easy to use and carry anywhere. With over 1,000 applications designed specifically for the iPad – as well as running almost all the 150,000 apps for iPhone and iPod Touch - the iPad promises to set a new communications agenda in your life. Item comes with carrying case.

R2 The Google Phone

Estimated Value: $530

The geeks at Google are justly renowned for their sense of innovation and pursuit of excellence – and they seem to get everything right. Now they offer another perfect product, in the form of a Nexus One Smartphone that uses the Android open source mobile operating system. Features of the phone include the ability to transcribe voice to text, noise-canceling dual microphones, and GPS guided turn-by-turn voice directions to drivers. Enjoy your favorite Google applications and more, all at your very fingertips, everywhere you go! Google your way to more efficient communications. Activate phone with your own service provider.

CASINO PRIZES

“Your winnings, sir...”

“Rick: How can you close me up? On what grounds?

Captain Renault: I'm shocked, shocked to find that gambling is going on in here!

[a croupier hands Renault a pile of money]

Croupier: Your winnings, sir.

Captain Renault: [sotto voce] Oh, thank you very much.

Captain Renault: [aloud] Everybody out at once!”

In Rick's Café Américain, the stakes were high – rare letters of transit to a life of freedom were gambled with trembling hands. Here, the climate is somewhat more relaxed... but the prizes are still about escape and enjoyment! Casino winnings may be exchanged for Casino Prize tickets. You select which prize(s) drawing to enter.

C1 For the Oenophile - Duckhorn Vineyards Napa Valley Sauvignon Blanc and Merlot along with Set of Four Riedel O Crystal Wine Tumblers

Estimated Value: $150

This palate-pleasing selection of two wines - perfect for any occasion - is packaged in a classic wooden logo box. The 2009 Duckhorn Vineyards Napa Valley Sauvignon Blanc echoes on the palate with tropical aromas, and is given further dimension by the addition of Semillon, which helps to showcase the juicy guava, passion fruit and pineapple upside-down cake flavors, alongside notes of fresh apple, vanilla and key lime pie. The 2007 Duckhorn Vineyards Napa Valley Merlot boasts layers of fig, red currant, almond, cedar and sweet spice, along with a subtle doughiness that lends an appealing mouthfeel. The final wine has been blended with Cabernet Sauvignon and a touch of Petit Verdot to add nuance and depth. This lovely item is complemented by four wonderful Riedel O crystal Cabernet / Merlot wine tumblers in a stylish gift tube.

C2 Watch how much whiskey you are drinking!

Estimated Value: $240

Much whiskey was consumed in Casablanca – both in the script and doubtless off-screen. Rick himself, when Major Strasser enquires as to his nationality, claims simply to be a drunkard, whereupon Captain Renault laughs that that makes him a “citizen of the world”. A bottle of Tullamore Dew, triple distilled for extra purity and smoothness, is matched with two tumblers, while another whiskey option, the autumnal gold Irishman, offers sublime balance. “Watch” your consumption with this handsome Swiss Army Wenger timepiece, designed to ensure precision and style.

C4 Prince Ozone Tour Racquet

Estimated Value: $200

The Ozone Pro Tour has a livelier response than typical player racquets, utilizing a Carbon Wave Matrix Construction for strength, stability and more control. Perfect for tournament players wanting a 16 x 18 string pattern, the Ozone Tour is the racquet of choice of Nikolay Davydenko and many other top touring pros. With a grip size 4, a 100 square inch head size, 10.9 oz strung weight and a more spin-friendly string pattern, this Ozone Tour is one of the most versatile options in the Prince line. A dependable choice for the intermediate to advanced player with a moderate to fast swing.

LIVE AUCTION

“Welcome back to the fight...”

“Victor Laszlo: Welcome back to the fight. This time I know our side will win.”

A sense of conflict was omnipresent in Casablanca – the Allies warring against Germany, Rick contrasted with Lazlo, the dueling dramas of love versus virtue. That fighting spirit made for an Academy-Award-winning film that consistently ranks as one of the greatest of all time. The Mamaroneck Schools

Foundation Live Auction maintains a great tradition of sculpting conflict into success, pitting our guests against one another in an exhilarating struggle to capture a great prize while competing to raise the most money for our schools!

L1 Four Tickets to Z100's Jingle Ball, Friday, December 10, 2010

Estimated value: $1000

Year after year, Z100's Jingle Ball brings together the hottest pop artists like Justin Bieber, Taylor Swift and Miley Cyrus. Reserve your tickets now and relax knowing you have the hottest tickets of the holiday season, and your kids will love you for it! Friday, December 10, 2010 at Madison Square Garden. Gold Level seating (back half of arena on the floor, or first/second level off the floor). Tickets will be sent overnight to the auction winner one week prior to the show.

L2 Wykagyl Golf Day

Estimated Value: $900

Three guests will join a member host for a round of golf at Wykagyl Country Club, one of the most challenging and beautiful courses in the country. Founded in 1898 by a group of ardent sportsmen, the Club's course has been redeveloped over the years to become the site of champions. Wykagyl is a par 72 course with over 6600 yards – a course rating of 73.1, with a slope rating of 141. These rolling greens, the proximity of the woods, and the hazards of the willow-bordered brooks call for every shot in golf. During and/or after this spirited round, invite your family for some time by the pool (season permitting) and a terrace lunch. Date to be mutually agreed on between parties.

L7 Luxury Private Villa in Sonoma Wine Country

Estimated Value: $4,350

Stay one week in this elegant, two-story Tuscan-style vineyard estate home. Situated on three acres of old-vine Zinfandel, the villa features four bedrooms, a gourmet kitchen and media room. An expansive arbor-covered patio with built-in barbeque and whirlpool spa offer a panoramic vista across the vineyards. A myriad of high quality wineries are nearby, as are opportunities for gourmet dining, hiking, biking, shopping, golfing, fishing, canoeing and kayaking. Take a drive along the stunning, majestic North California coast, or enjoy privileges at Healdsburg's premier health club, The Parkpoint Club. Advance booking is required and is subject to availability. Responsibilities of the winning bidder include a cleaning fee due upon booking, a refundable security deposit, and a written rental agreement. Cancellation less than 30 days prior to the designated booking will forfeit the stay. Also included here are two bottles of select wine from a limited run of the estate vineyard - Katz Vineyard Old Vine Zinfandel 2007 – savor a preliminary taste before your visit (only 145 cases produced)! Perfect for up to four couples, or an extended grown family up to eight (no children under age 12 and no pets please). Valid through July 2011.

L8 Go GaGa - Two Tickets to Lady GaGa Monster Ball Tour, with return car service!

Estimated Value: $1100

Lady Gaga is a multi-hyphenate performer - singer/songwriter/pianist/bon vivant - who became infamous before most of the world heard any of her songs. With tracks like Telephone, Bad Romance, Poker Face and Just Dance already proving to be mainstays on the charts, it seems like the hits aren't going to stop – experience the phenomenon in an electric evening from your seats in Section 133, Row F 7-8 on Friday, July 9, 2010 at Madison Square Garden. Local car service business owners Fugazy will take you there and back in the convenience and comfort of a Lincoln Continental Sedan. A memorable evening in so many ways.

L9 Two Autumn Nights for Four Couples at Beautiful Lake George Home

Estimated Value $3000

Enjoy a colorful and carefree autumn weekend for four couples in this stunning five-bedroom Adirondack home on the eastern side of Lake George, ten minutes from the village. Originally built as a chapel in 1921, and boasting perfect, panoramic views, the home enjoys full sun all day long, captivating sunsets, and features a gorgeous deck looking out onto the lake - as well as a boat house with a sundeck and outdoor bar, and a deluxe, fully-equipped kitchen. Spend your time relaxing on the deck, or take a walk up Prospect Mountain to view the spectacular fall foliage that typifies this beautiful region. Visit one of the many nearby marinas and rent a motor boat or jet skis for the weekend. In the evening, play pool, soak in the jacuzzi, or curl up in the Adirondack room and light a big fire! This home was featured in a book called Cabins by Ralph Kylloe, and you have the privilege and opportunity tonight to secure your own memorable stay. From Larchmont, a 3.5 hour scenic drive up the Taconic takes you to this dream destination. Choose the weekend before or after Columbus Day during Fall 2010. Sorry, no pets or children allowed.

L10 Last Chance to Create and Name Your Own Sandwich at The Larchmont Tavern

Estimated Value: Priceless!

Be the last person to be immortalized by sandwich at this, one of Larchmont's oldest establishments! A stalwart tradition in recent years, this item will – after tonight - be cleared from this renowned pub's table, although not its walls! So seize this final opportunity to create and name your own sandwich (or other menu item) at Larchmont's oldest family pub. Established in 1933, the LT is a much-loved local dining icon. Owners Arthur Jacobsen (Larchmont native and MHS grad), and Marty Krouner invite you to rename an existing item, or create your own taste sensation (within guidelines). A plaque with the winner's picture, winner's name, and sandwich name, will be posted on the wall of the Tavern and presented to the winner at the end of the year. The new item will be on the menu for one year – and possibly forever!

SILENT AUCTION

“...because I let you win...”

Captain Renault: Rick, there are many exit visas sold in this café, but we know that you've never sold one. That is the reason we permit you to remain open.

Rick: Oh? I thought it was because I let you win at roulette.

Captain Renault: That is another reason.”

SPORTING EVENTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

“Play it, Sam...”

Ilsa: Play it once, Sam. For old times' sake.

Sam: [lying] I don't know what you mean, Miss Ilsa.

Ilsa: Play it, Sam. Play “As Time Goes By”.

Sam: [lying] Oh, I can't remember it, Miss Ilsa. I'm a little rusty on it.

Ilsa: I'll hum it for you.

[Sam begins playing]

Ilsa: Sing it, Sam.

Sam: [singing] You must remember this / A kiss is still a kiss / A sigh is just a sigh / The fundamental things apply / As time goes by...

Rick: [rushing up] Sam, I thought I told you never to play...

[Sees Ilsa. Sam closes the piano and rolls it away.]”

This line is often misquoted as “Play it again, Sam.” Sam himself was in fact played by Dooley Wilson, one of the very few American members of the cast, and the only cast member who had actually visited the city of Casablanca. A schooled drummer, he couldn't actually play the piano. But you can play – and play hard – in some of the world's greatest sporting and theatrical arenas, by taking a prize here.

SE9 Two Tickets to Everyday Rapture

Opening Bid: $100; Estimated Value: $210; Face Value: $110

Everyday Rapture is the Broadway premiere of the critically acclaimed new musical starring Sherie Rene Scott and directed by Michael Mayer. This is the colorful story of a young woman's psycho-sexual-spiritual journey on the rocky path that separates her mostly Mennonite past from her mostly Manhattan future. She travels from the cornfields of Kansas to the clover fields of New York (with a disturbing detour through YouTube). The New York Times calls Everyday Rapture, "One of the year's most extravagantly entertaining new musicals." Saturday, June 5, 2010 at 8 pm.

Courtesy of Roundabout Theater Company

SE10 Two Tickets to the Tony-Award Winning Musical, Next to Normal

Opening Bid: $100; Estimated Value: $223

One family is about to face the music! Winner of three Tony Awards, Next to Normal was hailed by the New York Times as “The best new musical of the season.” According to Rolling Stone, this critically-acclaimed, ground-breaking show “pushes Broadway in new directions.” With a thrilling contemporary score, Next to Normal is an emotional powerhouse of a musical about a family trying to take care of themselves and each other. Two house seats are subject to availability, require two weeks’ notice, and must be redeemed by November 15, 2010.

SE16 Four Tickets to The Common Air

Opening Bid: $80; Estimated Value: $180

This off-Broadway comedy-drama starring Playwright/Actor Alex Lyras continues to garner rave reviews. Variety called it "...a tour de force exhibit of verbal and physical dexterity." An intriguing plot links six dramatically different characters during the mother of all delays at JFK Airport. The reason is unknown, and a spiraling game of "telephone" ensues in an effort to uncover the truth. Enjoy four tickets on the Wednesday or Saturday of your choice at 8 pm, or Sunday at 4 pm, before the season closes on June 30, 2010, at the Bleecker Street Theatre. Visit www.thecommonair.com for more details. Performance may not be appropriate for children under the age of 14.

GETAWAYS

"We'll always have Paris..."

Rick: Last night we said a great many things. You said I was to do the thinking for both of us. Well, I've done a lot of it since then, and it all adds up to one thing: you're getting on that plane with Victor where you belong...

Ilsa: But what about us?

Rick: We'll always have Paris. We didn't have, we, we lost it until you came to Casablanca. We got it back last night."

The underlying theme of the movie Casablanca was travel and transit - the characters were all plotting and conniving to be elsewhere. It won't be nearly as difficult for you to escape when you become the winning bidder on one of these coveted items!

GE1 Maine, Music and Magic at Quisisana

Opening Bid: $3000; Estimated Value: $6500

Maine's Quisisana cottages are scattered throughout the pines on the shore of the impossibly picturesque Lake Kezar - indeed, the lake has been called one of the five most beautiful in the world. Spend your days swimming from one of two sandy beaches, playing tennis on the clay courts, sailing, windsurfing, waterskiing, fishing, canoeing, hiking - or just plain relaxing. Each summer, the staff comprises talented music performers from conservatories around the country. Each day is filled not only with three gourmet meals (inclusive), but also with chamber music, a Broadway show, a revue and opera. This prize is offered to a family of four, or two couples, based on availability.

GE2 Ski Utah! 2011 President's Week Pow Wow Powder

Opening Bid: $1500; Estimated Value: $3300

Ski, eat, sleep, repeat. By night, enjoy a cozy two-bedroom condo centrally located in downtown Salt Lake City. By day, shred the slopes at the area resorts: Alta, Snowbird, Solitude, Brighton, Park City, The Canyons, and Deer Valley are all within a 40-mile drive. Accommodations are for seven nights during the most desirable week--February break--at The Kimball which is part of the RCI resort community and located 10 minutes from the Salt Lake airport, just across the street from Temple Square. (We know a family who used these accommodations as their base to ski six different area resorts in six days!) Also take advantage of two half-day drop-in lessons – as part of a group training session - with Axis Freeride, a freestyle training organization committed to helping skiers improve their freestyle techniques. Founded by modern freestyle skiing pioneer and Olympian, Chris "Hatch" Haslock, part of Axis Freeride's mission is to promote a lifelong love of skiing. Lesson can be scheduled for Olympic Park, Park City Resort, or The Canyons, and is based on availability so book now for next year (lesson does not include lift passes or equipment).

This package also includes a super-cool "Ski Utah" pillow, Alta hat, Salt Water Taffy, High West Whiskey, and other goodies from Western Nut to enjoy in the meantime. Check-in February 19, 2011. Check-out February 26, 2011. Airfare, ground transportation (rental car recommended), and lift tickets not included.

DINING AND HOME ENTERTAINMENT

"A good table, one close to the ladies."

"Captain Renault: Carl, see that Major Strasser gets a good table, one close to the ladies.

Carl: I have already given him the best, knowing he is German and would take it anyway."

Rick's Café Américain was painted in the movie to be the hottest spot in town – based as it was on an un-produced play called Everybody Comes to Rick's. The Mamaroneck community boasts many a fine eating house deserving of such popularity – or you can earn similar accolades in your own home with the extraordinary offerings plated here!

WINE AND SPIRITS

“A bottle of your best champagne, and put it on my bill.”

Captain Renault: Emil, please. A bottle of your best champagne, and put it on my bill.

Emil: Very well, sir.

Victor Laszlo: Captain, please...

Captain Renault: Oh, please, monsieur. It is a little game we play.

They put it on the bill, I tear up the bill. It is very convenient.”

Rick's was THE place to go for a drink - or many. Rick himself was very partial to a glass or two – as will you be with the high quality wines and spirits we offer in the extraordinary range below.

W4 Opus One Napa Valley Red Blend 1994, rated 92WA

Opening Bid: $130; Estimated Value: $300

This blend of 95% Cabernet Sauvignon, 2% Cabernet Franc, 2% Merlot, and 1% Malbec possesses a dark ruby/purple color, followed by a generous, complex nose of lead pencil, toasty oak, violets, and black currants. In the mouth, there is a beautiful texture, soft, generous, low acid, full-bodied richness, and a stunningly proportioned, rich, intense finish. The influence of 18 months in new French oak casks gives the wine a subtle oaky note in addition to giving it excellent delineation. Because of the wine's softness and generosity, it can be drunk now as well as over the next 18-20 years. Earned 92 well-deserved points from Wine Advocate.

Courtesy of Cecilia Absher and David Katz

W5 Spottswoode Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 1996 Magnum 1.5L

Opening Bid: $100; Estimated Value: $229

This medium-bodied 1996 Cabernet Sauvignon displays some of the attractive gravelly notes often found in this wine, along with black currant fruit, lavender, subtle oak, sweet tannin for the vintage, and a well-balanced, pure finish. Anticipated maturity: 2001-2016. Robert Parker: 90 points.

Courtesy of Cecilia Absher and David Katz

W6 Silver Oak Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2003 Magnum 1.5L

Opening Bid: $100; Estimated Value: $229

This 2003 Cabernet Sauvignon is a complex and concentrated wine that deftly balances intensity and finesse. The wine has a dark garnet color with a deep purple edge, and displays aromas of blackberry jam, dark chocolate, rose petal, black pepper and cedar. In the mouth, the attack is quite rich, expressing notes of brown sugar and nutmeg, and the flavors proceed seamlessly to a long finish of fruit and ripe tannins. Properly cellared, this wine should give drinking pleasure until 2027.

Courtesy of Cecilia Absher and David Katz

W7 Dominus "Napanook Vineyard" Napa Valley Bordeaux Blend 1995

Opening Bid: $60; Estimated Value: $149

Notable for its suppleness and approachability in 1995, this Bordeaux-style blend is much like the winery's exceptional 1992 vintage (Robert Parker: 95 points). Made entirely from grapes grown on the historic Napanook Vineyard in Yountville, this is a charming, elegant and feminine wine that Wine Spectator described as: "A lighter style, with a supple, polished texture and some vegetal notes leading into cherry and plum flavors."

Courtesy of Cecilia Absher and David Katz

W8 Silver Oak Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 1994

Opening Bid: $60; Estimated Value: $139

This 1994 Cabernet Sauvignon reveals a provocative nose of tobacco, black cherries, cloves, fruitcake, and spice. Some plum and raspberry fruit also emerges on the palate. This is a hedonistic, sexy, seductive, full-bodied Cabernet Sauvignon with low acidity, and loads of toasty oak. It will be a huge crowd pleaser when released next year. It should show well for at least 12-15 years. Robert Parker: 93 points.

Courtesy of Cecilia Absher and David Katz

W9 Napa Valley Twomey Merlot 2004 Magnum 1.5L

Opening Bid: $50; Estimated Value: $120

This 2004 Merlot is an elegant, concentrated wine that balances delicacy and expression of fruit. It has a dark ruby color and a complex nose of black cherry, raspberry, violets, and dark chocolate, with hints of lightly toasted bread. It offers multiple layers of cherry, liqueur, toffee, chocolate and amaretto flavors, culminating in a long fruity finish. Given proper cellaring, this full-bodied Merlot will continue to give drinking pleasure until 2016.

Courtesy of Cecilia Absher and David Katz

W10 Quintessa 2007 – Half Case of Latest Release in Pine Box

Opening Bid: $500; Estimated Value: $1000

Quintessa, like all classic wines of the world, bears the same name as the vineyard from which it is made. Fruit from each component block of the vineyard is harvested, sorted, then gravity fed into oak or stainless steel fermentation tanks. Once fermentation and maceration are complete, each block wine is aged separately for up to two years in French oak barrels in caves. After the aging period, the components are brought together and the final Quintessa blend is created. The wine is then bottled and laid down for yet another year before release. This red meritage wine is blended with finesse and elegance to express the character of the vineyard and as such, for harmony, balance and length of flavors.

W11 Waterford Crystal Whiskey Tumblers and Redbreast Irish Whiskey Aged 12 years

Opening Bid: $100; Estimated Value: $240

These stylish Waterford Lismore crystal whiskey tumblers set an elegant tone. Pair these four classic Irish heirloom pieces with a classic Irish Redbreast Pure Pot Still Whiskey.

Courtesy of Rosie and Gerry Murtagh

W12 Chateau Leoville Barton St. Julien 1985

Opening Bid: $50; Estimated Value: $110

Dense and concentrated with pretty currant vanilla and spicy aromas and flavors, fleshy, balanced but bursting with fruit and there's plenty of tannin to hold it for years. One of the best from this renowned Chateau.

Courtesy of Melina Vourlekis and Paul Bodor

W13 Chateau Gruaud-Larose St. Julien 1986

Opening Bid: $80; Estimated Value $174

Classic style, extremely rich and concentrated with layers of plum, cassis and spicy oak flavors that offer elegance and harmony on the palate and a long, full finish.

Courtesy of Melina Vourlekis and Paul Bodor

W14 Chateau Lynch Bages Bordeaux 1989 - Two Bottles

Opening Bid: $220; Estimated Value: $450

This spectacular Bordeaux delivers significant blackberry, leather and dried fruits on the nose. Full-bodied, with ultrapolished tannins and a silky mouthfeel, the palate turns to leaves, cedar and dried berries on the finish, which goes on and on. Just coming around now, but will improve many years ahead. WS: 96 points.

Courtesy of Denise and John Seedor

W15 Joseph Phelps Insignia Proprietary Red Wine 1997 - Two Bottles

Opening Bid: $250; Estimated Value: $500

A Napa winemaker with an extraordinary track record offers their flagship wine in this rich and focused blend. Youthful and concentrated, with hints of maturity on the edge of the core currant, mineral and spicy berry flavors, it features a wonderful vibrancy and intensity for a wine this age, which only bodes well for the future. A classic Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Petit Verdot blend. Wine Spectator: 97 points.

Courtesy of Denise and John Seedor

W16 Moët & Chandon Dom Pérignon 1993

Opening Bid: $120; Estimated Value: $250

This landmark champagne from one of the world's most esteemed champagne houses will be perfect for a forthcoming special occasion. With a deep, smoky, exotic bouquet of poached pear, yellow plum, and nectarine, it is lush and creamy, with a sweet/spicy cinnamon toast quality. This very special wine is deep, chewy and expansive on the finish, where the cinnamon and toasty flavors echo with noteworthy persistence.

Courtesy of Ed and Amy Hogan

W17 Caymus Cabernet Sauvignon Special Selection 2005

Opening Bid: $60; Estimated Value: $120

Firm, intense and well-structured, with a mix of spicy oak, red and black currant, mineral, sage and dusty berry, this special Cabernet turns elegant and refined, yet shows a sturdy backbone on the finish. Best from now through 2014. Wine Spectator: 94 points.

Courtesy of Jennifer and Gideon Malherbe

W18 Kosta Browne Russian River Valley Pinot Noir 2007

Opening Bid: $50; Estimated Value: $99

This fine pinot noir exhibits the qualities of excellence that have come to typify Russian River winemakers. Smoky, savory dried berry, sage, cola, and hints of anise and herb fold together in this sleek, trim, focused youngster. Medium- to full-bodied and well-proportioned, ending with a mix of fruit and cedary oak, you can choose to drink now through to 2011.

Courtesy of Pam and Ross Buchmueller

W19 Clos du Val Stags Leap District Cabernet Sauvignon 2004

Opening Bid: $30; Estimated Value $75

This flagship estate wine is deep purple-black in color and greets the nose with vibrant aromas of ripe black fruit balanced by a hint of dried herbs and toasty oak. The wine has a rich powerful entry, filling the mouth with intense black fruit and spice.

Courtesy of Jean Marie and Kerry Stein

W20 Two Bottles of Chateauneuf-du-Pape, Bosquet des Papes 1998

Opening Bid: $30; Estimated Value: $75

The legacy and reputation of Chateauneuf-du-Pape wines originated perhaps as early as the 12th Century when monks and bishops first cleared the land, and cultivated vineyards on their fiefs in Chateauneuf. In the early centuries, the wine was regularly supplied to the Papal residence - the famous castle, the remains of which today house the headquarters of a brotherhood that bears with pride the reputation of Chateauneuf-du-Pape. By virtue of the sheer quality of this wine, Chateauneuf-du-Pape has remained prosperous throughout the centuries. Two bottles of 1998 vintage will grace your next special occasion with style.

Courtesy of Nancy and Tim Gardiner

W21 Chateau Guiraud Sauternes 1989

Opening Bid: $70; Estimated Value: $150

This burnished yellow-gold Sauternes is full-bodied and exhibits the full pleasure of botrytis. Offers loads of beeswax, almost moldy aromas, yet it is fresh and zingy with plenty of honey, spice, toast and lemon flavors. Wine Spectator: 92 points.

Courtesy of Sabrina and Jeffrey Fiddelman

EXPERIENCES

"I'm the only cause..."

"Rick: I'm the only cause I'm interested in."

Casablanca's Rick Blaine was played of course by the immortal Humphrey Bogart, although early rumours suggested Ronald Reagan was marked for the role. Rick was a hardened, bitter American expatriate committed to self-preservation, or at least the illusion thereof. You don't need to pretend to be interested in only yourself – just do it! Seize here a challenging, fun, exhilarating experience that will stay with you long after the credits have rolled.

FAMILY FUN –
ADVENTURES AND ACTIVITIES FOR KIDS AND TEENS
“Here’s looking at you, kid.”

Ilsa: You have to think for both of us. For all of us.
Rick: All right, I will. Here's looking at you, kid.
Ilsa: [smiles] I wish I didn't love you so much."

Rick's remark to Ilsa, "Here's looking at you, kid," is not in the draft screenplays, but has been attributed to something Bogart said to Bergman as he taught her poker between takes. It was voted in the American Film Institute's 2005 poll as the fifth most memorable line in cinema history! Make your own memories by capturing some of the fabulous, fun, family items listed here.

F2 A Fresh Green Light – Driver Training for your Teen

Opening Bid: $300; Estimated Value: $725

Six out of ten teens have an accident their first year of driving. Car accidents take the lives of more teenagers than drugs, crime and war combined. Most accidents could be avoided if the teenager behind the wheel had the proper training to drive a car. Unfortunately, high school Driver's Ed has been proven to have virtually no impact on reducing the risk of a crash. Our children deserve better. Fresh Green Light is a new business - established by a Rye family with four teenagers – committed to bringing a 21st century approach to driver training. Here, driving simulators let students experience routine and extreme driving situations (and learn from their mistakes) in a safe environment. This invaluable package includes a five hour defensive driving course in a state-of-the-art driving simulator, and three 90 minute lessons in a 2010 Ford Hybrid SUV or sedan equipped with video cameras. Protect your teen while supporting a new and important local business!

HEALTH, FITNESS AND RECREATION

"The most beautiful woman ever to visit Casablanca..."

“Captain Renault: [to Ilsa] I was informed that you were the most beautiful woman ever to visit Casablanca. That was a gross understatement.

Ilsa: [genuinely pleased] You're very kind.”

Bergman's official website calls Ilsa her “most famous and enduring role.” The Swedish actress's Hollywood debut in Intermezzo had been well received, but her subsequent films were not major successes—until Casablanca. Here, she was called “luminous,” earning many accolades for the chemistry between her and Bogart: “She paints his face with her eyes.” Get luminous yourself with our health and fitness offerings and see if you can't paint a face or two.

FROM THE FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

"...an influential and respected man..."

"Senor Ferrari: As the leader of all illegal activities in Casablanca, I am an influential and respected man."

The film features several important figures of authority – Captain Louis Renault, Major Heinrich Strasser. But ours are much nicer! We are impossibly grateful for the inspiration and joy they provide each day to the 5500 children across the Mamaroneck Schools District.

JUST FOR YOU

“He’s just like any other man, only more so...”

Annina: Monsieur Rick, what kind of a man is Captain Renault?

Rick: Oh, he's just like any other man, only more so.”

Rick took great pains to convey himself as not only brusque, but brutally self-focused. He was – of course – anything but, and was in fact a man who repeatedly sacrificed his personal safety for that of others. You don’t need to make any such grandiose concessions here – just take the time to peruse this fabulous and varied range of prizes with which to openly indulge yourself!

ENDOWMENTS

“What... brought you to Casablanca?”

“Captain Renault: What in heaven's name brought you to Casablanca?

Rick: My health. I came to Casablanca for the waters.

Captain Renault: The waters? What waters? We're in the desert.

Rick: I was misinformed.”

We have come together for our own night in Casablanca to support and celebrate our school community and its pursuit of excellence. The generous contributions of families, friends and businesses across the district has allowed us to award more than $2.3 million in 275 school grants since 1996. The Mamaroneck Schools Foundation Endowment represents an invaluable dimension of our work.

Barbara Bennett-Rones Endowment

For almost 20 years, Barbara Bennett-Rones worked tirelessly and passionately for our community. Her work affected us all, especially our children, who benefited from her insightful, caring commitment to, among other things, issues of diversity, the arts and special needs. She served our schools by participating in a variety of positions and organizations including the Mamaroneck Avenue School PTA, PT Council, Selection Committee, Student Aid Fund and from 1994-2000 as a Trustee of the Mamaroneck School Board and ultimately as its President. Barbara participated in the founding of the Mamaroneck Schools Foundation and guided its initial boards with her professional, emotional and financial support. The Barbara Bennett-Rones Memorial Endowment to the Mamaroneck Schools Foundation was created in 2002 by her friends and family. The Endowment is intended to fund annual grants to our schools in the areas of diversity, the arts, supporting students with special needs and community service development—all areas of importance to Barbara. Each year the MSF awards a grant with the money from this fund in her memory. Please help us to continue Barbara's passion by making a donation to her memorial fund.

Mamaroneck Schools Foundation Endowment

The Mamaroneck Schools Foundation Endowment provides a solid financial future for our rapidly growing non-profit organization. Please help by making a contribution to the MSF Endowment and help ensure that we can keep promoting excellence in our public schools
